Storyteller and Energy Alignment

Kristin is a professional storyteller, actress, and energy worker. Her gift of personal, inspirational storytelling, combined with LaHo-Chi energy is the conduit to transmutation and transformation. Her vast personal experiences combined with energy realignment become the catalyst for powerful, positive change for her clients. Her desire is to lead others in the Awakening as they shift their perspective and change their lives for a better story.

Healing

It is an honor and privilege to be a conduit for the LaHo-Chi energy. The biggest gift, beyond my own alignment with Source Energy, is participating in the healing of others.

Working with the LaHo~Chi put the pieces of the metaphysical puzzle together for me and reawakened transformative healing at the core of my being. This experience propelled me to become a certified practitioner with the desire to help others transmute and transform. I trained and became certified with the only accredited and recognized institution for LaHo~Chi in the world ~ The LaHo-Chi Institute.

Storytelling

After graduating with an BFA in acting, I trained and performed professionally for the next 15 years in regional theatre, off-off Broadway and independent films. I went on to be married and have two children. The event of motherhood transformed me so powerfully that I left my acting career behind and became an at home mother. However, stories about my life, the entrance of children, the desire for transmuting trauma and much more began to fill my head. I began to tell these stories out and about when my husband said “you should write all this down and perform it”. What??? Seriously, it was the last thing on my mind, but, he pointed out that when I started telling one of my stories, people gathered. They laughed, cried and identified. They walked away changed for the better. And so began my foray into professional storytelling.

Creative, witty, poignantly funny, and very energetic ...

as one who is also directionally challenged
I could very much appreciate your experiences...

you were wonderful last night.....

BRAVO!!!

– Faith J

You Were fantastic tonight!

Not only funny and energetic and funny again...

but the story was right on! I was impressed with the way you wove your childhood/teen experiences throughout. I laughed, I cried, I laughed again, then I came home and posted on Facebook because I think more people should go see you tomorrow!! My 19 year old Abby and I thoroughly enjoyed ourselves. Thank you, Namaste, Blessings, and Aloha while I'm at it!

– Jeannette H

I identified with so much of your path and your approach to life...

Thank you again. I hope many more people have the opportunity to enjoy and benefit
from your work!
